The Fulbright Commission in Brazil is pleased to announce you can now submit your application for the Fulbright Chairs in the U.S. These professorships target Brazilian faculty members and researchers who have an established record of teaching. They must also have the potential to make significant contributions to the body of research key to a wide range of disciplines, strengthening cooperation between Brazilians and the U.S. institutions through the Chairs as set forth below:

FULBRIGHT CHAIRS 2023-2024
Fulbright-Ruth Cardoso Chair at Georgetown University
Fulbright Chair in Interdisciplinary Studies: Agricultural Economics at Purdue University
Fulbright Chair in STEM at University of California, Davis
Fulbright Chair in Brazilian Studies at Emory University
Fulbright Chair in Public Health Sciences at University of California, San Diego
Fulbright Chair at the University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center
Fulbright Chair in Global Health University of New Jersey, Rutgers
Fulbright Chair in Materials Science & Nanoengineering at Rice University
Fulbright Chair in Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences at YALE University

Fulbright together with the U.S. partner will award a one-semester grant in the fall term 2023 of the academic year to a faculty member from a higher education institution in Brazil. The grantee will receive a maintenance stipend and funds to cover airfare and housing for one academic term to support research and teaching activities.

An instruction package for each Chair is available at www.fulbright.org.br. Applications must be submitted in the online system until the respective deadline.

It is a unique opportunity to participate in the U.S. flagship educational exchange program and become a Fulbrighter for life.

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-2024
PROGRAMS FOR BRAZILIAN CITIZEN
FULBRIGHT DISTINGUISHED CHAIR AT EMORY UNIVERSITY

The Fulbright Distinguished Chair at Emory University (Emory) awards a Brazilian scholar the opportunity to spend one term researching, teaching one course, and joining activities such as lectures and seminars in the fall term 2023 or spring term 2024, following Emory's academic year calendar.

This program strengthens cooperation between Brazilian academic institutions and Emory across all schools and disciplines, including, but not limited to: humanities, natural sciences, social sciences, arts, law, biomedicine, public health, nursing, and business. The research produced through this cooperation will be incorporated into research and teaching programs at Emory University and the visiting professor's home institution. The Chair will be hosted by appropriate departments and programs and affiliated with Emory's Halle Institute for Global Research. Established in 1997 with a gift from Claus M. Halle, the Halle Institute strengthens faculty and student research distinction, prepares engaged scholars, and facilitates the global exchange of ideas. Its programs bring distinguished visiting scholars into dialogue with Emory and the broader Atlanta community. Applications must include a Plan of Activities with a specific discussion of how residence at Emory University will aid the Chair in achieving fresh perspectives and expertise.

Please note that, with the COVID-19 outbreak, all Fulbright programs are contingent upon local restrictions, border controls, sanitary procedures, and availability of funds. Only and if those conditions are met, programs will be implemented.

1. ELIGIBILITY

Candidates must work under a full-time and active contract in a Brazilian higher education institution. English language proficiency compatible with the proposed activities is a requirement. Candidates must hold a Brazilian passport and must have earned a doctoral degree before December 31st, 2014. Candidates that have benefited of J-1 visa in the past must have returned to Brazil before August 1st, 2021, to be eligible for the Fulbright Program. Dual Brazilian/U.S. citizens and or candidates hired temporarily or as substitute professors are not eligible and, also, scholars who have already received a Fulbright Chair Award cannot apply to another one.

Candidates must demonstrate outstanding academic qualifications and a record of professional experience along with intellectual production in the proposed area during the last ten years. The candidate must stay in Brazil during the selection, affiliation, and departure to the U.S.; this grant cannot be combined with any other similar grant with the same purpose.

2. FUNDING

The Chair will award funding for one visiting scholar based on a four month stay, as follows:

- US$ 22,400 for maintenance, and international round-trip air ticket. The award will be paid by both institutions, Fulbright (US$ 16,200) and Emory (US$ 6,200). The income paid by Emory University is subject to tax, determined under tax accounting rules;
- Housing provided and arranged by Emory (one-bedroom apartment) or a U.S. $10,000 (ten thousand U.S. dollars) housing allowance, subject to applicable taxes. If the scholar opts for housing allowance, scholar will be responsible for arranging the housing;
- Limited health coverage through Fulbright's ASPE - Accident and Sickness Program for Exchanges;
- Visa J-1; and
- Access to the facilities and services of Emory University, such as office space, laboratories, libraries, and any other amenities regularly provided to the academic community to ensure the success of the teaching and research activities undertaken by the scholar.

3. SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The candidate must submit the online application form, available at <https://apply.iie.org/fvsp2023> indicating “Distinguished Chair at Emory University” in the Award Information, cycle 2023-2024, and including the following documents, all in English:

- Brazilian passport ID pages, pages, if available, or photo ID. If the candidate has already received a J-1 visa, copy of the DS-2019 form and the visa page from the passport;
- Resume (CV), no more than three pages;
- Ph.D. certificate or diploma (original document; translation not required);
- Pay Stub (contracheque original document; translation not required);
- Research project statement with bibliography;
- Plan of activities including a clear discussion of how residence at Emory University will aid the Distinguished Chair in achieving new perspectives and expertise.
- Proposed syllabus for a course that meets for 3 hours per week over the course of a semester for graduate or advanced undergraduate students.
- Two letters of reference.

4. SELECTION PROCESS

The Fulbright Commission will screen and analyze, by peer review, all valid applications. A multi-disciplinary faculty review panel at Emory University will assess valid candidates' academic and professional qualifications and the relevance of their proposed courses and research projects. An interview may be required. The Fulbright Commission and Emory University will nominate the selected candidate for final approval by the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board. Preference will be given to candidates with little or no significant previous academic experience in the U.S.

5. TIMELINE

- August 1, 2022: deadline for online applications submission;
- December 2022 results of the selection process;
- Fall 2023 or Spring 2024: activities at Emory.
